This workshop will discuss the pathophysiology of stroke as illustrated by imaging hallmarks; the importance of Stroke pathway organisation and teamplay; an introduction to acute stroke imaging that will include the stroke CT protocol and the role of advanced imaging applications in enabling treatment selection, concluding with an interactive discussion focused on a series of challenging Stroke imaging case studies.